

FROM PASTOR JEREMY - STAFFING UPDATES

Choir Director – First Church Campus: United Methodist Ministries of Mecosta County is seeking a part-time Choir Director for the First Church (Downtown) Campus. We are looking for someone who is passionate about sacred music and eager to collaborate with volunteers to support and enrich our worship life. For more information or to express interest, please contact Pastor Jeremy or Barb in the UMMMC office.

Family Ministries Transition: After a period of prayerful discernment, Julie Setlock has decided that this is the right time to conclude her ministry with United Methodist Ministries of Mecosta County. Her final Sunday on staff will be no later than Easter Sunday.

Julie has served faithfully and fruitfully as our Director of Family Ministries, and we are deeply grateful for the many ways she has nurtured children, supported families, and strengthened our community. Her creativity, care, and genuine love for this congregation have made a lasting impact on our shared life together. We offer our sincere thanks for her ministry and our prayers for her in this season of transition. In the weeks ahead, there will be opportunities for the congregation to express appreciation and celebrate her work among us.

As we look ahead, this position will be posted soon. This role will be combined with a newly configured position that will continue to support family ministries while also strengthening our capacity for community outreach and engagement. If you feel drawn to this area of ministry, or know someone who may be, reach out to Pastor Jeremy directly.

BREAKING THE WHEEL - A LENTEN SERMON SERIES

Some patterns feel bigger than us. Cycles of anger. Cycles of division. Cycles of scarcity. Cycles of injustice. They repeat in our families, our communities, our politics, even in our faith. Lent invites us to slow down long enough to see the wheel turning — and to ask whether it has to keep turning at all.

In this six-week series, we will follow Jesus from the wilderness to Jerusalem and discover how he interrupts cycles of violence, retaliation, religious corruption, fear, and self-preservation. Again and again, Jesus refuses to play by the rules of domination and control. He chooses a different way — and invites us to do the same.

Join us this Lent as we explore what it means to follow the One who does not keep the wheel spinning — but stops it.

TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude

Celebration of Communion

* Call to Worship (Leader / People)

On the mountain, Jesus was transfigured before them—his face shining, his presence radiant with glory.
We come to behold that glory.

A voice from the cloud declared, “This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.”
We come to listen.

In a world loud with accusation, rumor, and rage, we gather to be shaped by a different Word.
Refine our speech, O God.

If our words are fire, let them not burn with cruelty or pride.
Let them burn with mercy and truth.

Come, let us worship the One whose glory transforms, whose voice steadies, and whose love reshapes what we say and how we live.

* Hymn- “Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”, UMH #103

NOTES:

Check In Here

Welcome to Paris!

Welcome to Paris, the north campus of United Methodist Ministries of Mecosta County - we’re so glad you’re here! This is a place where faith feels like family, where neighbors become friends, and where we learn and grow together in Christ’s love.

Whether you're visiting, returning, or looking for a church home, you are welcome here. Come as you are, bring your questions and your hopes, and make yourself at home.

If you need anything or have questions, our church family is here to help. We’re blessed to have you with us today.

THINK ABOUT IT: TAMING THE FIRE

James doesn’t minimize the power of words—he says they are fire. A small spark can set an entire forest ablaze. A small sentence can reshape a relationship. A careless phrase can echo for years. If faith that works shapes how we live, then it must also shape how we speak. This week we’re invited to ask honest questions: What kind of fire are my words carrying? Do they warm or wound? Do they build trust or erode it? Do they reflect the mercy of Christ—or the anxiety of the culture around me? James reminds us that blessing and cursing should not flow from the same mouth, yet we know how easily frustration, sarcasm, fear, or anger can spill out in ways that diminish others. This isn’t about being artificially polite. It’s about being intentionally faithful—because words create worlds.

Questions for Reflection

- How do I speak about people who are not in the room?
- What words do I use for those with whom I disagree?
- Where has my speech been shaped more by fear than by faith?
- Who in my life needs a word of encouragement, repair, or truth?

A Prayer for the Week

God of light and refining fire, guard my mouth and steady my heart. Let my words reflect your mercy. When I am tempted to wound, teach me restraint. When silence would protect injustice, give me courage. Shape my speech so that it builds what love requires. Amen.

Practice This Week

- Pause before responding in frustration.
- Refuse to repeat gossip—even subtly.
- Offer one intentional word of encouragement each day.
- Speak up gently when language becomes dehumanizing.
- Before posting or sharing online, ask: Does this reflect mercy?

Final Thought

Transfiguration reminds us that glory shines from Jesus. James reminds us that fire comes from our mouths. May the fire we carry be refining rather than destructive, and may our speech reflect the One we claim to follow. Because faith that works doesn’t just believe differently—it speaks differently.

FEBRUARY MISSION GIVING FOCUS: CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS

Our February Mission Giving Focus will support Camp Scholarships, helping children and youth attend Christian summer camp — even when cost might otherwise be a barrier.

At UMMMC, every child who attends church camp automatically receives a $100 scholarship, and we also offer additional need-based scholarships to ensure no one misses out because of finances. These scholarships make it possible for more young people to experience a place where faith is formed, friendships grow, and lives are often changed in powerful ways.

All funds received through the February Mission Giving will be directed to the Karen Poole Camp Scholarship Fund. Karen’s passion for camping ministry was evident not only during her time at First Church but throughout her entire ministry. Supporting this fund is a meaningful way to honor her legacy while investing in the faith of the next generation.

Thank you for helping make camp possible for our children and youth!

Your generosity makes a difference! To avoid any confusion in our giving systems, please make your checks out to First Church. Thank you for your continued support!
